Tabou introduces the 2011 Team

Driven hard by world renowned shaper Fabien Vollenweider, this young and exciting brand has been thriving within the markets with great magazine tests along with race winning results! The boards not only look good, they work good. They are the real thing ridden by all of our team riders in professional competition. What you see on the rack at your local shop is exactly what our team are competing on.

Thomas Traversa is known for his radical sailing. He puts it all on the line and goes for any lip coming at him. He has been with Tabou since the beginning and continues to solidify his image with one of the most innovative shapers in windsurfing. Keep an eye out for Traversa F-3 in your local waters. 2009 PWA Sylt Winner, Alex Mussolini hails from Spain and joins his friend and fellow competitor Traversa to hit the PWA tour and take down some names! Joining these guys is the PWA Rookie of the year 2010, Jamie Hancock. Jamie is a top British sailor who can rip in any condition. Racer Ross Williams is no slouch either, he is capable of putting his feet up on the box at almost any event- the bigger the waves, the better he gets!

The Freestyle team adds some new flavor with Tonky Frans coming on board- Tonky is known for his charismatic flair and will be a great addition to the team. He teams up with Davy Scheffers the young ripper from Holland. Every now and then, Wave Star Thomas Traversa throws in a contest or two in order to keep up with the new moves- these guys will blow you away with the moves they are doing!

On the women's side, Japan's Junko Nagoshi leads our girls Freestyle team and is always one to watch for taking a place on the podium. Junko trains hard and has some impressive moves!

Our racing team is led by Ross Williams. Ross has been on tour now and is quickly becoming a veteran on the course. He has proven he has the ability to win events, next will be climbing to the top of the podium. Ross is joined by the tall tower of Israel, Arnon Dagan who puts the "S" in Speed. He is one fast man and has potential to be a top contender. Cedric Bordes works on the development side of things and is an up and comer to the PWA ranks. Cedric has had some top 15 finishes on the tour and has also won the French Championships more than once! New to the team is the Moussilmani Twins- Sylvain and Benoit are from Marseille and have been on tour for 7 years. They know what it takes to find good results and will be pushing the Tabou Manta's as hard as they can.

On the women's side, Valerie Arrighetti Ghibaudo FRA 444 is a deadly threat to the women slalom racers. She has proven this with the PWA World Title on multiple occasions. A dedicated racer, Valerie has what it takes to deliver the goods!
